

CONTENTS

Preface by Lester Embree vii

Introduction by Ted Toadvine xv

I. Merleau-Ponty as a Reader of Husserl

1. Merleau-Ponty on Husserl: A Reappraisal 3
Dan Zahavi

2. Merleau-Ponty's Ontological Reading of Constitution in Phénoménologie de la perception 31
Elizabeth A. Behnke

3. The Phenomenological Movement: A Tradition
without Method? Merleau-Ponty and Husserl 51
Thomas M. Seebohm

II. Phenomenology and Method in Merleau-Ponty

4. Leaving Husserl's Cave? The Philosopher's Shadow Revisited 71
Ted Toadvine

5. From Dialectic to Reversibility: A Critical Change of Subject-Object Relation in Merleau-Ponty's Thought 95
Hiroshi Kojima

6. What about the praxis of Reduction? Between Husserl and Merleau-Ponty 115
Natalie Depraz

7. From Decisions to Passions: Merleau-Ponty's Interpretation of Husserl's Reduction 127
Sara Heinämaa

III. Legacy and Tradition

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 8. | The Time of Half-Sleep: Merleau-Ponty between Husserl and Proust
Mauro Carbone | 149 |
| 9. | Eugen Fink and Maurice Merleau-Ponty: The Philosophical Lineage in Phenomenology
Ronald Bruzina | 173 |
| 10. | The Legacy of Husserl's "Ursprung der Geometrie": The Limits of Phenomenology in Merleau-Ponty and Derrida
Leonard Lawlor | 201 |

Appendix

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 11. | Merleau-Ponty's Reading of Husserl: A Chronological Overview
Ted Toadvine | 227 |
| | Notes on Contributors | 287 |
| | Index | 291 |