

CONTENTS

Translator's Foreword	x
------------------------------	---

PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS

§ 1. The Questionworthiness of Our 'Self-Evident' Preconceptions Concerning 'Essence' and 'Truth'	1
§ 2. History of the Concept of 'Truth: Not Historical Confirmation of Preconceptions, But Return to the Originary Greek Experience of ἀλήθεια (Unhiddenness)	5

PART ONE

THE CLUE TO THE 'ESSENCE' OF ἈΛΗΘΕΙΑ Interpretation of the Allegory of the Cave in Plato's Politeia

CHAPTER ONE

The Four Stages of the Occurrence of Truth	17
--	----

A. The First Stage: the Situation of Man in the Underground Cave	18
--	----

§ 3. The Unhidden in the Cave: the Shadows	20
--	----

B. The Second Stage: a 'Liberation' of Man within the Cave	23
--	----

§ 4. New Features of ἀλήθεια Revealed by the Unsuccessful Attempt at Liberation	24
--	----

C. The 'Third Stage: the Genuine Liberation of Man to the Primordial Light	29
---	----

§ 5. The Ascent of Man from the Cave Towards the Light of the Sun	31
---	----

a) Levels of Unhiddenness outside the Cave	32
--	----

b) Four Questions Concerning the Visible Connections of ἀλήθεια in the Occurrence of Liberation	34
--	----

§ 6. Idea and Light	35
---------------------	----

a) The Seeing of What-Being	36
-----------------------------	----

b) The Essence of Brightness: Transparency	39
--	----

c) The Fundamental Accomplishment of the Idea: Letting-through the Being of Beings	42
---	----

§ 7. Light and Freedom. Freedom as Bond to the Illuminating	43
---	----

§ 8. Freedom and Beings. The Illuminating View as Projection of Being (Exemplified by Nature, History, Art and Poetry)	45
§ 9. The Question Concerning the Essence of Truth as Unhiddenness	48
a) Gradations of Unhiddenness. The Ideas as the Primordially Unhidden and Most Beingful of Beings	48
b) The Ideas as What Is Sighted by a Pre-modelling Perceiving within the Occurrence of Unhiddenness	52
c) Deconcealment as the Fundamental Occurrence of the Ex-istence of Man	54
D. The Fourth Stage: the Freed Prisoner's Return to the Cave	58
§ 10. The φιλόσοφος as Liberator of the Prisoners. His Act of Violence, His Endangerment and Death	59
§ 11. The Fulfilment of the Fate of Philosophizing as an Occurrence of ἀλήθεια: Separation and Togetherness of the Manifest and the Hidden (Being and Illusion)	63
CHAPTER TWO
The Idea of the Good and Unhiddenness	69
§ 12. The Idea of the Good as the Highest Idea: Empowerment of Being and Unhiddenness	69
§ 13. Seeing as ὄρᾶν and νοεῖν. Seeing and the Seeable in the Yoke of the Light	72
§ 14. The Good: Empowerment of That upon Which All Depends	77
§ 15. The Question Concerning the Essence of Truth as the Question Concerning the History of Man's Essence and His παιδεία	81
CHAPTER THREE
The Question Concerning the Essence of Untruth	85
§ 16. The Waning of the Fundamental Experience of ἀλήθεια. The Philosophical Obligation to Re-awaken It: the Abiding Origin of Our Existence	85
§ 17. The Neglect of the Question Concerning the Essence of Hiddenness. Transformation of the Question Concerning the Essence of Truth into the Question Concerning the Essence of Untruth	89
§ 18. Justification of the 'Detour'. Preliminary Clarification of Fundamental Concepts: ψεῦδος, λήθη and ἀ-λήθεια	94
§ 19. Summary: Unhiddenness and Being; the Question Concerning the Essence of Untruth	104

PART TWO

AN INTERPRETATION OF PLATO'S THEAETETUS WITH RESPECT TO THE QUESTION OF THE ESSENCE OF UNTRUTH

CHAPTER ONE

Preliminary Considerations 109

§ 20. The Question Concerning the Essence of ἐπιστήμη: Man's Attack on the Self-evidences of His Self-understanding 109

§ 21. Fundamental Content of the Greek Concept of Knowledge: Fusion of Know-how and Seeing Having-Present of That Which Is Present 114

CHAPTER TWO

Beginning of the Discussion of Theaetetus' First Answer: ἐπιστήμη
Is αἴσθησις. Critical Demarcation of the Essence of Perception 118

§ 22. Αἴσθησις as φαντασία. The Self-showing in Its Presencing 118

§ 23. The Senses: Only Passage-way, Not Themselves What Perceives in Human Perception 121

§ 24. The Soul as the Relationship that Unifies the Perceivable and Holds
It Open 124

§ 25. Colour and Sound: Both Perceived at Once in διανοεῖν 129

CHAPTER THREE

Stepwise Unfolding of Perceiving in All Its Connections 133

A. Step One: Perceiving of Beings as Such 133

§ 26. A Strange 'Excess' in the Perceived over and above the Sensory Given:
'Being' and Other Characters as the Necessary but Unnoticed
Co-perceived 133

B. Step Two: Inquiry into What Perceives the Excess in the Perceived 136

§ 27. The Sense-Organs: No Passage-way to the Common in Everything Perceived 136

§ 28. The Soul as What Views the κοινά in διανοεῖν 140

C. Step Three: The Soul's Relation to Being as Striving for Being 144

§ 29. The Priority of Striving for Being in the Soul as Relationship to the Perceived 145

§ 30. Having and Striving	147
a) Apparent Incompatibility between Striving and Perception	147
b) Losing Oneself in Immediate Perception	148
c) Non-regarding and Non-conceptual Perceiving	149
d) Free Possession of Truth (Knowledge) Only in the Relationship of Striving towards What Is Striven for; Inauthentic and Authentic Having	152
§ 31. Inauthentic and Authentic Striving. The ἔρωξ as Striving for Being	154
§ 32. More Determinate Conception of Striving for Being	156
a) More Essential Unfolding of the Determinations of Being in Attunedness	157
b) The Taking-in-View of the Connections of Being	159
c) Interpretation of Connections of Being in the συλλογισμός	160
d) Initial Clarification of the Connection of Being to Time	162
§ 33. The 'Excess': Not an Addition to What Is Sensed, but the Conceptual Highlighting of Distinct Characters of Being in the Sphere of Striving for Being	163
D. Step Four: Being-Human as Historical in Staking and Stance ( παιδεία )	167
§ 34. The Rooting of 'Abstract' Characters of Being in the Unity of Bodily Existence. Their Difference from 'Self-less' Nature. Being out Beyond Oneself in Primordial Yearning	167
§ 35. Inadequacy of 'Theaetetus' First Answer. Perception Still More Than Perception. Broadened Experience of αἴσθησις as the Condition of the Possibility of Unhiddenness	171
CHAPTER FOUR
Towards a Discussion of 'Theaetetus' Second Answer: ἐπιστήμη Is ἀληθῆς δόξα . The Various Meanings of δόξα	176
§ 36. The Emergence of the Second Answer out of the Question of Untruth	176
§ 37. Double-Meaning of δόξα (View): Look and Opinion	179
§ 38. Two More Faces of δόξα : The Wavering between Letting-Appear ( εἶδος ) and Distorting ( ψευδος )	184
CHAPTER FIVE
The Question Concerning the Possibility of the ψυδῆς δόξα	187
A. Preparatory Investigation: Impossibility of the Phenomenon of the ψευδῆς δόξα	187

§ 39. The Horizon of the Preparatory Investigation as Excluding in Advance the Possibility of a ψευδῆς δόξα	187
a) First Perspective: Alternatives of Knowing and Not-knowing	189
b) Second Perspective: Alternatives of Being and Non-being	193
c) Third Perspective: The ψευδῆς δόξα as ἄλλοδοξία (Substitution instead of Confusion)	197
§ 40. Result of the Preliminary Investigation: λόγος -Character of the δόξα ; Its Aporia: Suppression of the Phenomenon through the Guiding Perspectives	202
B. Main Investigation: Saving the Phenomenon of the ψευδῆς δόξα	203
§ 41. Retracting the Guiding Perspectives of the Preliminary Investigation in Favour of Previously Denied Intermediate Phenomena	203
§ 42. New Characteristics of the Soul: Two Similes	208
a) Simile of the Wax; Keeping-in-Mind	208
b) An Example: the Feldberg Tower; Having-Present and Making-Present	210
c) Simile of the Aviary; Modes of Retaining	214
§ 43. Confirmation of the Connection between αἴσθησις and διάνοια through Broadening the Field of the Present	217
§ 44. Clarification of the Double-Meaning of δόξα : Its Forking into Having-Present and Making-Present	219
§ 45. Enabling of Mis-taking through the Forking of the δόξα	223
§ 46. The Shifting of Ontological Failure into the Incorrectness of the Proposition. What Remained Un-happened in the History of the Concept of Truth	225

APPENDIX

Supplementary Materials from Heidegger's Notes	229
Editor's Afterword	237
English-German Glossary	241
Greek-English Glossary	250