

Table of Contents

Editor's Introduction: Paul Ricœur: Narrative and Phenomenon	7
Translators' Preface	33
Introduction to Ideas of E. Husserl	35
Husserl's Introduction	63
Section I: Essence and the Knowledge of Essences	63
Chapter 1: Fact and Essence	63
Chapter 2: False Interpretations of Naturalism	79
Section II: Fundamental Phenomenological Considerations	85
Chapter 1: The Thesis of the Natural Attitude and its Place in the Whole Matter	85
Chapter 2: Consciousness and Natural Reality	93
Chapter 3: The Region of Pure Consciousness	105
Chapter 4: Phenomenological Reductions	113
Section III: Methods & Problems of Pure Phenomenology	117
Chapter 1: Preliminary Considerations of Method	117
Chapter 2: General Structures of Pure Consciousness	123
Chapter 3: Noesis and Noema	133
Chapter 4: Problems of Noetic-Noematic Structures	141
Section IV: Reason and Reality	157
Chapter 1: Noematic Meaning & the Relation to the Object...159
Chapter 2: Phenomenology of Reason	163
Chapter 3: The Levels of Universality Pertaining to the Problems of the Theory of Reason	167
Index	171