Introduction by Walter Lowrie xxiii

THE POINT OF VIEW FOR MY WORK AS AN AUTHOR

Introduction 5

PART I

A. The Ambiguity or Duplicity in the whole Authorship, as to whether the Author is an Aesthetic or a Religious Author 10

B. The Explanation: that the Author is and was a Religious Author 15

PART II

The Whole Work of Authorship construed from the point of view that the author is a religious author

Chapter I

A. THE AESTHETIC WORKS 22

Why the beginning of the work was aesthetic, or what these works signify, understood in relation to the whole 22

§ 1. That 'Christendom' is a prodigious illusion 22

§ 2. That if real success is to attend the effort to bring a man to a definite position, one must first of all take pains to find HIM where he is and begin there 27

§ 3. The illusion that religion and Christianity are something one first has recourse to when one grows older 31

§ 4. That even if a man will not follow where one endeavours to lead him, one thing it is still possible to do for him—compel him to take notice 34

§ 5. That the whole of the aesthetic work, viewed in relation to the work as a whole, is a deception—understanding this word, however, in a special sense 39

B. THE CONCLUDING POSTSCRIPT 41

C. THE RELIGIOUS WORKS 42

CONCLUSION 42
