

Contents

	PREFACE	xi
I	MAN AND HIS MORAL DILEMMA	1
	Man's Moral Predicament	3
	Subjectivism and Relativism of Values	8
II	LIVING CREATIVELY WITH UNCERTAINTY	13
	Consequences of Relativism for Practical Affairs	14
	Objective Relativism	17
	The Source of Moral Obligation for Christians	22
III	MAN FACES HIS WORLD	26
	The Philosophical Dilemma of Modern Man	28
	The Nature of Philosophy	30
IV	THE SEARCH FOR A WORLD VIEW	36
	The Purpose of Philosophy	37
	The Metaphysical Quest	39
	The Christian's World View	44
	Appendix: The Logical Empiricists	49
V	MAN AND HIS SELF	56
	Man's Predicament: Personal and Religious	57
	The Nature of Man	60
	Live Options on Man's Nature	65
	The Christian View of Man	71

Contents

VI	THE ROLE OF THE SCIENCES	76
	Methods and Knowledge Claims of the Sciences	79
	Classification of the Sciences	81
	The Way a Scientist Works	83
	Characteristics and Limitations of the Sciences	85
VII	COMMITMENT AND THE LANGUAGE OF FAITH	91
	The Results of Commitment and Faith	93
	The Characteristic Language of Religious Faith	96
	The Basic Harmony of Faith and the Sciences	104
VIII	THE BIBLE AND HISTORY	108
	Central Role of the Bible in Historical Religion	110
	History in the Bible	113
IX	REVELATION AND RESPONSE	122
	The Meaning of Revelation in Historical Religion	122
	Response of Men of Faith	129
	The Relation of Faith to Reason	131
X	THE BEING OF GOD	136
	Changing Ideas About God	136
	Traditional Arguments for the Being of God	141
XI	GOD, EVIL, AND PERSONAL EXISTENCE	149
	The Problem of Evil	149
	Bearings of the Arguments for the Being of God	155
XII	JESUS CHRIST: DIVINE-HUMAN EVENT	164
	Christ as Center of Historical Events	169
	A More Adequate Understanding of Christ	174

Contents

XIII	GOD IN CHRIST	179
	God Acting in History Through Christ	180
	The Miracles as Signs of God's Action	181
	The Doctrine of the Incarnation	185
	The Doctrine of the Trinity	190
XIV	RECONCILIATION THROUGH THE CROSS	195
	The Cross for Man, Christ, and God	197
	Theories of the Atonement	203
	Translation of Theories for Today	205
XV	RESURRECTION AND FULFILLMENT	209
	Crucifixion-Resurrection in Hebraic Tradition	211
	Scriptural Accounts of the Resurrection	215
	The Doctrine of Justification by Faith	220
XVI	THE CHURCH AS COMMUNITY	228
	The Nature of the Church	230
	Specific Functions of the Church	237
XVII	ECUMENICAL CHRISTIANITY	241
	Origins of Denominations	242
	Obstacles to the Ecumenical Goal	249
	Positive Steps Toward Understanding	253
XVIII	AND THE LIFE EVERLASTING	258
	Life Everlasting Among Basic Christian Beliefs	258
	Different Understandings of the Belief	262
	Positive Statements in Religious Language	266
	APPENDIX	273
	Major Ecumenical Conferences of the Twentieth Century	273
	Suggested Reading	274
	INDEX	291