

Contents

Acknowledgments	/ xi
Preface	/ xv
Preface to the Paperback Edition	/ xix
Introduction by John Edgar Wideman	/ xxiii

PART ONE Life on Death Row

Teetering on the brink between life and death	/ 3
Descent into hell	/ 19
The visit	/ 22
"On tilt" by state design	/ 24
On death row: fade to black	/ 27
From an echo in darkness, a step into light	/ 34
Nightraiders meet rage	/ 37
Actin' like life's a ball game	/ 41

viii CONTENTS

Legal outlaws: Bobby's battle for justice	/	44
Manny's attempted murder	/	47
A toxic shock	/	50
Spirit death	/	53
A return to death	/	55
Days of pain—night of death	/	58
Relatives decry "camp hell"	/	62
B-block days and nightmares	/	65

PART TWO Crime and Punishment

Human waste camps	/	73
Black march to death	/	76
Slavery daze II	/	79
Skeleton bay	/	82
No law, no rights	/	85
Two bites of the apple in Dixie	/	88
Blackmun bows out of the death game	/	93
Jury of peers?	/	97
Expert witness from hell	/	100
The demand for death	/	103
Already out of the game	/	106
A bill that is a crime	/	109

PART THREE Musings, Memories, and Prophecies

Musings on Malcolm	/	115
--------------------	---	-----

- Deadly déjà vu / 118
Rodney wasn't the only one / 121
L.A. outlaw / 124
Absence of power / 127
Clinton guillotines Guinier / 130
Another side of Glory / 133
What, to a prisoner, is the Fourth of July? / 136
A house is not a home / 139
The lost generation? / 142
Blues for Huey / 145
Philly daze: an impressionistic memoir / 149
- Afterword* / 167
- About the Author* / 186