

CONTENTS

Introduction

The Incognito of the Good	1
Ethos, Metaxological Ethics, and the Fourfold	4
The Potencies of the Ethical	10
Concretions of Being Good	13

Part I: Ethos

Chapter One. The Ethos: Being As Worthy/Being As Worthless

The Ethos in Question	17
Ethos As Elemental—Preobjective/Presubjective Good	21
Modernity and the Equivocity of the Ethos	23
On the Objectification and Subjectification of the Ethos	25
Autonomy and Relation to the Other	30
The Valet of Reaction?	32
The Worthless Whole and Will to Power	34
Desolate Ethos and the Waste of Power	38
On the Totalizing of the Instrumental	39
Ethical Nihilism: Coming to Nothing, Beginning Again	44

Part II: Ethical Ways

Chapter Two. Ethos and Univocal Ethics

The Play of Indetermination and Determination in the Ethos	51
The One Good: Same and Supreme	54
Aesthetic Univocity: Pleasure/Being Pleased	56
Dianoetic Univocity: Rational Rule, Law	59
Eudaimonistic Univocity: Happiness	62

Transcendental Univocity: Duty	65
Transcending Univocity: Blessedness	69
Transcendent One: God	73

Chapter Three. Ethos and Equivocal Ethics

The Sowing of Confusion	79
The Diaspora of Goods?	82
The Sorrow of Satisfaction: Aesthetic Equivocity	87
The Virtues of the Promiscuous: Dianoetic Equivocity	91
The Stirring of the Subterranean: Transcendental Equivocity	96
Wholeness and Death: Eudaimonistic Equivocity	103
Blessedness and Suffering: Transcending Equivocity	109
God and the Dark Face of Evil: Transcendent Equivocity	114

Chapter Four. Ethos and Dialectical Ethics

Why Dialectic?	117
Dialectic and Ethical Doubling	118
The Extremity of Opposition and the Ethical Exigence	122
Coming to Self and the Immanent Standard	126
Dialectic Beyond Objectivism and Subjectivism	129
Hospitality to Inherent Good	130
Dialectic, Kant, Autonomy: Given the Law and Giving the Law	133
Hegel, Sittlichkeit , Social Self-Determination: The Will That Wills Itself and Rational Obedience to the Whole	142
Dialectic, Marx, Historical Self-Determination: The Social Totality As Autonomy and Tyranny	148
Nietzsche's Higher Autonomy: Will to Power and Tyranny	151
Dialectic, Plato, Justice	156
Equivocal Dialectic, Erotic Sovereignty, Agapeic Relation	159

Chapter Five. Ethos and Metaxological Ethics

The Archeology of the Good	163
The Surplus Generosity of the Good	165
The Idiocy of Being Good in the Between	170
The Aesthetics of Being Good in the Between	177
Dianoetic Constancies of Being Good	191
Transcendental Constancies of Being Good	198
The Eudaimonics of Being Good: The Daimon and Homage to the Gift	203
Metaxological Transcending: Ethical Desire in Extremis	209
Transcendence and the Metaxological: The Agape of the Good	217

*Part III: Ethical SelvingsChapter Six. First Ethical Selving:*The Idiocy of Root Will

Ethical Selvings	221
Desire's Bodied Flush: Skin and Seepage	222
The Idiocy of Root Will	225
Transformations in Root Will (1): Selving and the Ideal	229
Transformations in Root Will (2): Intention and Directed Selving	234
Transformations in Root Will (3): The Enigmatic Excess of Purpose	236
Transformations in Root Will (4): Ardor of the Heart	241

Chapter Seven. Second Ethical Selving:*The Redoubling of Will

The Willing Self and Its Doubling	245
Will Willing Itself: Self-Doubling, Ethical Answerability	248
Self-Doubling and Answerability to the Other	251
Willing Doubled into Acting: The Deed	254
The Doer Redoubled As Character	256
Character Redoubled in Community	260
Character Redoubled As Singular Person	263
Singular Person Redoubled As Ethical Discernment in the Middle	265

Chapter Eight. Third Ethical Selving:*The Becoming of Freedom

Freedoms and Self-Transcending	269
"Freedom From" and Equivocal Liberty: Ontological Difference and Being for Self	270
The Chiaroscuro of the Ethos	276
Adolescent Freedom	280
Temptation: Presentiment of Evil	282
Bewitchment	285
Freedom Seducing and Seduced	287
Freedom in Flight From the Determinate	289
Dissimulating, Inordinate Desire	291
Hubris and Ananke	293
Usurpation	297
Craving	299

Chapter Nine. Fourth Ethical Selving: Dialectical Autonomy

Prodigal Freedom	303
Coming to Self: "Freedom To" and the "No"	305
Making Freedom Work	309
Dialectical Freedom and Autonomy	316

Chapter Ten. Fifth Ethical Selving: Erotic Sovereignty

Freedom and Erotic Sovereignty	323
Erotic Sovereignty and the "More"	325
The Prodigal on the Throne	332
The Erotic Sovereign and the Daimon	338
Beyond Erotic Sovereignty	341

Chapter Eleven. Sixth Ethical Selving: Agapeic Service and Friendship

Agapeic Service and Servility	347
Freedom As Agapeic Transcending	354
Freedom and Friendship	356
Freedom on the Frontier	362

Chapter Twelve. Seventh Ethical Selving: Released Freedom and the Passion of Being

Being Freed: Beyond (Standing on One's) Dignity	365
Idiotic Suffering: Passio Essendi	368
Aesthetic Suffering	370
Erotic Suffering	372
Agapeic Suffering	376
Suffering Nothing and the Good of It All	379
And the Patience of Job?	381

*Part IV: Ethical CommunitiesChapter Thirteen. The Familial Community of the Intimate:
The Ethical Intermediation of the Idiot

Familial Intermediation and the Potencies of the Ethical	385
The Chicken and the Egg: First Familial Intermediation	386
Flesh to Flesh	389
Were Adam and Eve Married? On the Couple	391
Being Reared: Second Familial Intermediation	394

Parental Bodies/Original Nostalgia	397
Asymmetrical Relations and the Ambiguity of Authority	401
Boys Will Be Boys	405
Thank Heaven for Little Girls	407
Family Piety and Prodigal Release	409
Chapter Fourteen. The Network of Serviceable Disposability: The Instrumental Intermediation of the Aesthetic
Turned to the Commons	415
Serviceable Disposability: On Work and Use	416
The Reconfigured Ethos under the Dominion of Serviceable Disposability	421
Beyond Serviceable Disposability and the Karma of the Ethos	432
Chapter Fifteen. The Community of Erotic Sovereignty: The Intermediation of Immanent Excellence
Sovereign Intermediation	443
The Idiocy of Sovereignty: Erotic Transcending, Social Sources	445
The Aesthetics of Sovereignty: The Charisma of Power	449
The Dianoetics of Sovereignty: On Leadership and Legitimacy	456
Transcendental Sovereignty: On Constitution and Representation	460
The Eudaimonics of Sovereignty: The Intermediation of Common Good	470
Transcending and Commons beyond Sovereignty	474
Transcendence, Sovereignty, the Sacred	476
Chapter Sixteen. The Community of Agapeic Service: The Intermediation of Transcendent Good
Consummate Community: The Commons of the Divine	483
Hidden Showing and Community: On the Idiot Potency	489
Doubled Face and Divine: On the Aesthetic Potency	490
The Agapeic Universal: On the Dianoetic Potency	494
Monotheism of the Good: On the Transcendental Potency	501
The Communication of Blessing: On the Eudaimonic Potency	506
Extremities of Agony and Thanks: On the Transcending Potency	508
Hyperbolic Gifts: On Transcendent Good	511
Index	515