

CONTENTS

.....

INTRODUCTORY CRITICAL ESSAYS

The Question of Authenticity	3
The Epistles and the Historians of Sicily	17
Plutarch and the Epistles (18)—The Ancient Historians of Sicily (21)—The Dual Tradition Regarding the Revolution in Syracuse (26)—The Sources of Timaeus (32)—The Early History of Epistle VII (37)—The Discrepancies Between Plutarch and the Epistles (41)
Epistle VII	44
The Theory of Knowledge in Epistle VII	60
Epistle VIII	81
Epistle III	88
Epistle XIII	100
Epistle II	109
Plato and Greek Politics	118
Faction and Disorder in Fourth-century Greece (123)—The Ideal of the Strong Man (130)—Plato's Political Inactivity at Athens (137)—The Political Purpose of the Academy (142)
Dion and the Reform of Sicily	145
The Experiment with Dionysius II	155
Dion's Triumph and Death	173
The Advice to Dion's Party in 353	180

Genealogical Table of the Families of the Dionysii and Dion	188
--	-----

TRANSLATION OF THE EPISTLES

I. To Dionysius	191
II. To Dionysius	193
III. To Dionysius	199
IV. To Dion of Syracuse	206
V. To Perdiccas	209
VI. To Hermeias, Erastus, and Coriscus	211
VII. To the Friends and Followers of Dion	215
VIII. To the Relatives and Friends of Dion	250
IX. To Archytas of Tarentum	258
X. To Aristodorus	259
XI. To Laodamas	260
XII. To Archytas of Tarentum	262
XIII. To Dionysius, Tyrant of Syracuse	263
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	271
INDEX
A. English	273
B. Greek	282