

CONTENTS

REALISM	1
1 A Realistic Jurisprudence: The Next Step	3
2 Some Realism about Realism	42
3 Legal Tradition and Social Science Method	77
4 Frank's Law and the Modern Mind	101
5 Natural Law for Judges	111
6 Impressions of the Conference on Precedent	116
7 On Reading and Using the Newer Jurisprudence	128
8 On the Good, the True, the Beautiful, in Law	167
9 On the Current Recapture of the Grand Tradition	215
INSTITUTION, RULES, AND CRAFT	231
10 On the Nature of an Institution	233
11 The Bar's Troubles, and Poultices—and Cures?	243
12 American Common Law Tradition, and American Democracy	282
13 The Crafts of Law Re-valued	316
14 The Modern Approach to Counselling and Advocacy	323
15 Law and the Social Sciences—Especially Sociology	352
16 The Content of a Jurisprudence Course	372
17 The Study of Law as a Liberal Art	375

CONTROLLING BEHAVIOR: HOW AND WHY?	397
18 Law Observance Versus Law Enforcement	399
19 Theft as a Behavior Problem	412
20 Who Are These Accused?	431
21 The Anthropology of Criminal Guilt	439
22 Group Prejudice and Social Education	451
23 Yes, It Takes Mass Production	468
24 The Law, Human Dignity, and Human Civilization	476
25 What Law Cannot Do for Inter-Racial Peace	480
 MEN	 489
26 Wesley Newcomb Hohfeld—Teacher	491
27 Roscoe Pound	495
28 Mr. Justice Holmes	507
29 Holmes	513
 INDEX	 521