Contents

Preface ix

Introduction: A First Approximation 1

What the Dictionaries Say 4
Moral Wisdom as a Capacity 5
Moral Wisdom as a Second-Order Virtue 9
Approaching Moral Wisdom 11
Conclusion 14

1 A Eudaimonistic Conception of Good Lives 16

The Human Point of View 16
The Values of a Good Life 19
The Need for Judgment 24
Objectivity and Anthropocentricity 28
Conclusion 29

2 The Socratic Ideal and Its Problems 31

The Socratic Conception of a Good Life 32
The Socratic Conception of Moral Wisdom 37
Moral Wisdom and Self-Knowledge 40
Doubts about the Socratic Ideal 45
Conclusion 50

3 Permanent Adversities 51

Contingency and the Goods of Good Lives 51
Conflict and the Plurality of Values 57
Evil and Human Wickedness 64
Conclusion 70

4 Judgment and Control 73

The Problem of Control 74
Easing the Problem of Control 79

Moral Inequality 84
Degrees of Responsibility 87
Character and Control 91
Conclusion 94

5 Moral Imagination: The First Mode of Reflection 95

Possibilities and Impossibilities 96
The Nature of Moral Imagination 101
The Enlargement of Possibilities 107
Conclusion 112

6 Self-Knowledge: The Second Mode of Reflection 114

Character and Self-Knowledge 115
The Nature of Self-Knowledge 121
The Need for Self-Knowledge 127
From Fortuitous to Deliberate Character 129
Conclusion 136

7 Self-Knowledge: The Second Mode of Reflection (continued) 137

Beyond Coherence: Primary Values 137
Beyond Coherence: Anomalies 139
Beyond Coherence: Surprises 141
The Adequacy of Self-Knowledge 147
The Foreclosure of Possibilities 152
Conclusion 158

8 Moral Depth: The Third Mode of Reflection 160

Hopelessness? 161
Four Stages of Moral Depth 165
What Sophocles Suggests 170
The Fifth Stage of Moral Depth 174
Conclusion 180

9 The Ideal of Justice 182

The Concept of Justice 183
Making Lives More Just 190
Some Limits of Justice 196
Justice and Moral Wisdom 201
Conclusion 203

10 Growing in Moral Wisdom 204

Moral Wisdom as an Attitude to Life 204
Moral Wisdom as the Loss of Innocence 213
Reflective Innocence and Moral Wisdom 221

Works Cited 225

Index 233