

Contents

Introductory Schema	1
1. Law, Justice, and the Public's Aspirations	21
2. The Austerity of the True and the Sociality of the Just	47
3. On Liberation and Liberty: Marcuse's and Mill's Essays Compared	65
4. Law and Logic	77
5. Enacted Law: Eighteenth-Century Hopes and Twentieth-Century Accomplishments	111
6. Law, Reason, and Sociology	131
7. The Board of Punishments' Interpretation of the Chinese Imperial Code	151
8. The Rights and Duties of Beasts and Trees	191
Notes	203