

Contents

THEORY OF HISTORY

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	1
PART ONE: THE STUDY OF EVENTS
CHAPTER
1. The Activities of the Historian	11
2. The Characteristics of Historical Narrative	18
3. The Aims of the Academic Historian	30
4. National History and World History	40
5. The Logical Implications of Historical Narrative	51
6. The Concept of Cause in History Writing	67
PART TWO: THE STUDY OF CHANGE
7. The Aims of Historical and Evolutionary Inquiry	77
8. The Idea of Progress and the Foundations of the Comparative Method	82
9. The Sociological Method of Auguste Comte	99
10. The Influence of Comte on the Study of Anthropology	110
11. The Study of Evolution in the Nineteenth Century	128
12. Events in Relation to the Study of Evolution	141
PART THREE: THE STUDY OF THE PRESENT
13. The Method of Science	155
14. The Investigation of Differences in Human Groups	168
15. The Method of Hume and Turgot	180
16. Illustrations of Present Difficulties	198

THE PROCESSES OF HISTORY

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	223
CHAPTER
1. The Nature and Scope of the Inquiry	225
2. The Geographical Factor in History	247
3. The Human Factor in History	268
4. Method and Results	293
—————
INDEX	317