

CONTENTS IN BRIEF

PART 1 MEDICAL DECISION MAKING 1

- Issue 1. Is Informed Consent Still Central to Medical Ethics? 2
Issue 2. Can Family Interests Ethically Outweigh Patient Autonomy? 20
Issue 3. Should HIV-Infected Surgeons Be Allowed to Operate? 44

PART 2 DEATH AND DYING 61

- Issue 4. Are Some Advance Directives Too Risky for Patients? 62
Issue 5. Should Physicians Be Allowed to Assist in Patient Suicide? 80
Issue 6. Is It Ethical to Withhold the Truth from Dying Patients? 96
Issue 7. Should Doctors Be Able to Refuse Demands for "Futile" Treatment? 120

PART 3 CHOICES IN REPRODUCTION 133

- Issue 8. Should Courts Be Permitted to Order Women to Use Long-Acting Contraceptives? 134
Issue 9. Is There a Moral Right to Abortion? 154

PART 4 CHILDREN AND BIOETHICS 179

- Issue 10. Should Newborns Be Screened for HIV Infection? 180
Issue 11. Should Newborns Without Brains Be Used as Organ Donors? 190
Issue 12. Do Parents Harm Their Children When They Refuse Medical Treatment on Religious Grounds? 204

PART 5 GENETICS 219

- Issue 13. Will the Human Genome Project Lead to Abuses in Genetic Engineering? 220
Issue 14. Should Health Insurance Companies Have Access to Information from Genetic Testing? 238
Issue 15. Should Parents Always Be Told of Genetic-Testing Availability? 252

PART 6 HUMAN AND ANIMAL EXPERIMENTATION 271

- Issue 16. Should Animal Experimentation Be Permitted? 272
Issue 17. Will Fetal Tissue Research Encourage Abortions? 290

PART 7 BIOETHICS AND RESOURCE ALLOCATION 303

- Issue 18. Should Health Care for the Elderly Be Limited? 304
Issue 19. Should Patient-Centered Medical Ethics Govern Managed Care? 318
Issue 20. Should There Be a Market in Body Parts? 340