

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
by A.T. Dalfovo
Chapter I. Applied Ethics And The Experiential Dimension In African Philosophy	27
by A.T. Dalfovo
Chapter II. The Relevance of African Ethics to the Contemporary African Society	51
by J. K. Kigongo
Chapter III. The Destiny of the Individual in Contemporary Africa	67
by J. Kisekka
Chapter IV. Ethnicities and the Challenge of Social Cohesion in Contemporary Africa	83
by G. Tusabe
Chapter V. Freedom and Human Rights: The Development Dilemma in Sub-Saharan Africa	101
by E. Wamala
Chapter VI. The Privatisation Process in Africa: Ethical Implications	115
by R. Munyonyo
Chapter VII. Human Values as the Unifying Reference of Human Rights and the African Perspective	137
by A. B. Rukooko
Chapter VIII. A Holistic Approach to Human Rights in Uganda: Challenges to Theology and Philosophy	159
by A.B.T. BYaruhanga-akiiki
Chapter IX. Human Rights and Development in Uganda: Reflections on the Constitutional Provisions of the Right to Development	183
by M. Mawa
INDEX	207