

Contents

Preface to Instructors (and Curious Students) ix

Introduction: What To Expect 1

PART ONE PHILOSOPHY COURSES 5

1 How To Survive A Philosophy Class 7

Acquiring Informed Opinions 10

Special Features of Philosophy Courses 11

Getting The Most Out of a Philosophy (or Any) Class 12

Deciding What Is Noteworthy 14

Why Attendance Matters 17

Why Ethical Behavior Matters 18

2 Reading Philosophy 21

- Healthy Confusion 22
- Quick Tips for More Effective Reading 22
- Beyond the Textbook 25

PART TWO CRITICAL THINKING,
READING, AND WRITING 27*3 Developing A Critical Attitude 29

- What Is Uncritical Thinking? 32
- What Does Critical Thinking Require? 34
- Critical Thinking Practices That Pay Off in the Classroom and Beyond 35
- Three Basic Standards of Evidence 40

4 Applying Critical Thinking Skills
To Become A Better Reader 43

- Use Your Textbook's Organizational Features 44
- The Virtues of Annotating and Owning Your Own Text 45
- Our Basic Reading Strategy Summarized 47
- What to Do If Nothing's Working So Far 48

5 Critical Writing 49

- Basic Features of Good Critical Writing 49
- Four Great Writing Tips 51
- How to Pick a Topic 52
- A Quick Guide to Getting Better Grades on Writing Assignments 54
- Four Writing Samples for You to Grade 59
- A Last Look at the Four Sample Essays 62
- Characteristics of Good and Bad Essays 63
- A Simplified Style Guide for Excellent Papers 66
- A Handy Checklist for Better Critical Writing 71

PART THREE STUDENT WISDOM 736 Basic Motivation and Strategy for Getting the Most Out of College 75

Set Realistic Goals 78

Time Management 79

Accept What You Can't Change 80

Change What You Can 81

Avoid False Comparisons 82

What It Really Costs to Go to College 83

It's Worth the Effort 86

A Note of Encouragement for Part-time Students 87

Self-Help 89

Avoid the Biggest Mistakes College Students Make 92

Be Cool About Being Cool About School 93

7 Relating To Your Professor 95

Conferences with Your Professor 98

Letters of Recommendation (and Beyond) 99

8 Test Taking 105

Preparing for Tests 105

Relaxation Techniques for Better Test Scores 107

How to Do Your Best on Essay Tests 108

How to Do Your Best on Completion Tests 111

How to Do Your Best on Objective Tests 112

How to Do Your Best on Mixed-Question Tests 116

Conclusion 117Beginning Philosopher's Bibliography 119