

Contents

PART I HUME'S THEORY OF MIND

- | | |
|---|----|
| 1. A General Account of Hume's Theory of Mind | 3 |
| 2. The Derivation of Ideas from Impressions | 16 |
| 3. Memory | 31 |
| 4. Belief and Existence | 46 |

PART II THE APPLICATION OF THE THEORY OF MIND TO THREE PROBLEMS: CAUSATION, PERSONAL IDENTITY, AND PERCEPTION

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Causation: The Evidence and its First Effect on Us | 63 |
| 6. Causation: The Gap between Evidence and Belief | 75 |
| 7. Causation: The Second Effect of the Evidence | 94 |
| 8. Personal Identity: The Problem and Hume's Rejection of Current Solutions | 120 |
| 9. Personal Identity: Hume's Solution and his Later Recantation | 135 |
| 10. Sense-Perception: Hume's Assessment of the Problem and his Strategy for Eliminating Current Solutions | 152 |
| 11. Sense-Perception: Hume's Heroic Solution | 168 |

Postscript 199

Bibliography 201

Index 203