

Contents

Preface	ix
1 INTRODUCTION AND PHILOSOPHICAL BACKGROUND	1
1 The Relevance of Hayek's Social Philosophy	1
2 Sources of Hayek's Ideas	5
3 Knowledge, Mind and Reason	9
2 THE METHODOLOGY OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES	16
1 Austrian Economics and the Origins of Subjectivism	16
2 Hayek's Subjectivism	22
3 The Social Science of Complex Phenomena	27
4 The Enemies of Social Science	34
5 Hayek and Popper	39
3 THE MARKET ORDER AND COMPETITION	42
1 From Philosophy to Economics	42
2 Economies and Catallaxies	45
3 Market Process	46
4 The Defence of the Market Order	49
4 LIBERTY AND COERCION	54
1 The Importance of Liberty in Hayek's Social Philosophy	54
2 Definition and Meaning	57
3 The Justification of Freedom	67
4 Coercion	71
5 THE THEORY OF LAW	76
1 The Place of Law in Hayek's System	76
2 Rules	79
3 The Nature of Law	82
4 The Rule of Law	90
5 Validity and Morality	95
6 Law and Liberty	100

6	THE AGENDA OF GOVERNMENT	103
1	The Problem of the State	103
2	Rejected Criteria for State Action	105
3	The Limits of Government	107
4	The Welfare State	114
5	Conservation	118
6	Planning	120
7	HAYEK'S THEORY OF JUSTICE	124
1	The Problem of Justice	124
2	Hayek's Theory of Justice	133
3	The Attack on Distributive Justice	137
4	Hayek and Rawls	143
5	Equality and the Welfare State	147
8	ECONOMICS AND ECONOMIC POLICY	151
1	Hayek's Career as an Economist	151
2	The Austrian Theory of the Trade Cycle	154
3	Hayek and Keynes	167
4	Post-war Economic Policy	174
5	Socialism	179
9	CONCLUSION	183
1	The Road to Serfdom	183
2	Hayek's Critique of Democracy	186
3	The Reconstruction of the Liberal State	190
4	Liberalism and Conservatism	194
5	Science and Values	198
	Notes	203
	Select Bibliography	220
	Index	225