

CONTENTS

PART I SCIENTISM AND HISTORICISM

- John O'Neill*
Scientism, Historicism and the Problem of Rationality 3
- F. A. Hayek*
From Scientism and the Study of Society 27
- K. R. Popper*
From The Poverty of Historicism 68

PART 2 SCIENTISM AND THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

- May Brodbeck*
On the Philosophy of the Social Sciences 91
- Alan Gewirth*
Subjectivism and Objectivism in the Social Sciences III
- Richard S. Rudner*
Philosophy and Social Science II9
- Alan Gewirth*
Can Men Change Laws of Social Science? I25

PART 3 METHODOLOGICAL INDIVIDUALISM

- J. W. N. Watkins*
Ideal Types and Historical Explanation I43
- J. W. N. Watkins*
Historical Explanation in the Social Sciences I66
- J. W. N. Watkins*
Methodological Individualism: A Reply I79

viii Contents

Joseph Agassi Methodological Individualism	185
 PART 4 CRITIQUE OF METHODOLOGICAL INDIVIDUALISM
K. J. Scott Methodological and Epistemological Individualism	215
Maurice Mandelbaum Societal Facts	221
Maurice Mandelbaum Societal Laws	235
E. A. Gellner Explanations in History	248
L. J. Goldstein The Inadequacy of the Principle of Methodological Individualism	264
L. J. Goldstein Two Theses of Methodological Individualism	277
May Brodbeck Methodological Individualisms: Definition and Reduction	287
A. C. Danto Methodological Individualism and Methodological Socialism	312
Bibliography	339
Index	347