

Contents

Preface	viii
1 The International Order	1
From Vienna to Versailles: the Rise of the Nation State	1
The Challenge of Internationalism	6
Sovereignty	11
Federalism and the International 'State of Nature'	13
The 'Domestic Analogy' in International Relations	17
2 International Morality	23
The Hobbesian State of Nature	23
Realism	25
Neutrality and the National Interest	30
The Domestic Analogy	33
Factual Disanalogy	36
Moral Disanalogy	38
Ethics in the Anarchical Society	44
3 War	48
Christian Attitudes to War	48
The Case for Pacifism	52

Just Wars	55
Natural Law	57
Justice Ad Bellum	59
Force and Violence	62
Justice In Bello	65
The Doctrine of Double Effect	69
4 The World of Nuclear Weapons	73
The Argument So Far	73
Nuclear Weapons	74
Consequentialism	77
Nuclear Deterrence	81
Threats, Bluffs and Conditional Intentions	83
Mutually Assured Destruction	88
5 Intervention	93
International Law	94
Autonomy and the Nation State	96
The Right of Non-intervention	98
States as Persons	101
Consequentialism and Non-intervention	103
The Definition of Intervention	106
Intervention and Just War Theory	108
The Duty of Intervention	112
6 Terrorism and Civil Conflict	115
Subjectivism and the Use of Moral Language	115
Freedom Fighters	118
Terrorism	122
Guerilla Warfare	125
Combating Terrorism	129
7 Poverty and Affluence	133
Absolute and Relative Poverty	134
Poverty and Cost-Benefit Analysis	136
Lifeboat Ethics	140

Taking Stock of the Arguments	144
Social Justice and Welfare Rights	146
Basic Rights and National Boundaries	149
International Charity	152
8 The Politics of the Environment	157
Ecology and Environment	157
Ethics and Environmental Crisis	160
Deep Ecology	165
The Gaia Hypothesis	169
International Politics and the Environment	171
Bibliography	176
Index	179