

Contents

Preface ix

1. Introduction 1
Alan D. Schrift
2. “Radical Evil” Revived: Hitler, Kant, Luther, Neo-Lacanian 12
Henry Staten
3. Liquidating the “Nearly Just Society”: Radical Evil’s Triumphant Return 28
William L. McBride
4. Violence and Secularization, Evil and Redemption 39
Martin Beck Matušítk
5. Disenchantment and the Persistence of Evil: Habermas, Jonas, Badiou 51
Peter Dews
6. How Rape Became a Crime against Humanity: History of an Error 66
Debra B. Bergoffen
7. Ways of Winning: The Costs of Moral Victory in Transitional Regimes 81
Robert Meister
8. Abjection and Film: Displacing the Fetishistic, Racist Rhetoric of Political Projection 112
Tina Chanter
9. Faith, Territory, and Evil 132
William E. Connolly
10. Hannah Arendt on the Bourgeois Origins of Totalitarian Evil 148
Robert B. Pippin
11. Evil, Evils, and the Question of Ethics 167
Adi Ophir
12. Incursions of Evil: The Double Bind of Alterity 188
Edith Wyschogrod

Contributors 199

Index 203