
Contents

Introduction, 3

1. Substance versus Procedure, 7

The Philosophical Problem: Substance versus Procedure, 10

The Burden of Proof: Half a Loaf, 14

The Distinction in Context, 19

2. Punishment versus Treatment, 25

Two Constitutional Perspectives: Motive versus Impact, 26

The Purposes of Punishment, 30

The Conceptual Analysis of Punishment, 33

Punishment: Public and Private, 35

3. Subject versus Object, 43

The Requirement of Human Action, 44 ✓

Acts and Omissions, 45

Commission by Omission, 47

Offenses of Failing to Act, 48

Alternative Approaches to Human Action, 50

Subject and Object in Criminal Procedure, 53

4. Human Causes versus Natural Events, 59

The Domain of Causation, 60 ✓

How to Approach Causation, 62

Problem One: Alternative Sufficient Causes, 63

Problem Two: Proximate Cause, 64

- Problem Three: Omissions, 67
 - Causation in Ordinary Language, 69
 - Ideology and Causation, 70
- 5. The Crime versus the Offender, 74
 - The Basics of Wrongdoing, 77
 - The Basics of Attribution, 81
 - The Operative Significance of the Distinction, 85
 - A Problem in the Borderland: Putative Self-Defense, 88
- 6. Offenses versus Defenses, 93
 - Disputes about the Burden of Persuasion, 94
 - From Defeasible to Comprehensive Rules, 97
 - Formal Reasoning, 97
 - The Presumption of Innocence, 98
 - The Moral Theory of Guilt, 99
 - The Necessity of the Distinction Between Offense and Defense, 101
 - Can a Statutory Justification Be Unlawful?, 106
- 7. Intentions versus Negligence, 111
 - Accidents and Negligence, 113
 - Negligence: Objective and Subjective, 117
 - The Structure of Culpable Intentions, 120
 - On Motives, 124
 - The Distinction Between Intention and Negligence Revisited, 125
- 8. Self-Defense versus Necessity, 130
 - Se Defendendo* and Necessity as Excuses, 130
 - Self-Defense as a Justification, 132
 - Necessity or Lesser Evils as a Justification, 138
 - Conflicts Between Self-Defense and Necessity, 143
- 9. Relevant versus Irrelevant Mistakes, 148
 - Irrelevant Mistakes, 149
 - Mistakes about Factual Elements of the Definition (Type One), 156
 - Mistakes about Legal Aspects of the Definition (Type Two), 156
 - Mistakes about Factual Elements of Justification (Type Three), 158
 - Putative Justification Negates the Required Intent, 159
 - Strict Liability: The Mistake Is Deemed Irrelevant, 160
 - Putative Justification Is Itself Justification, 161
 - Reasonable Mistake as an Excuse, 162
 - Mistakes about the Norms of Justification (Type Four), 163
 - Mistakes about the Factual Elements of Excuses (Type Five), 163
 - Mistakes about Excusing Norms (Type Six), 165
 - Summary of Mistakes: Relevant and Irrelevant, 166
- 10. Attempts versus Completed Offenses, 171
 - The Search for the Primary Offense, 172
 - The Structure of Attempts: Impossibility, 176
 - The Structure of Attempts: Abandonment, 181

11. Perpetration versus Complicity, 188

- The Formal Equivalence of Perpetrators and Accomplices, 190
- The Differentiation of Perpetrators from Other Participants, 194
- Two Problematic Variations, 197
- The Expansion of Corporate Criminal Liability, 201

12. Justice versus Legality, 206

- The Complexities of Legality, 207
- The Legal Nature of the Twelve Basic Distinctions, 211
- Implicit Principles, 212

Index, 215