

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1. Plessy's Long Shadow	11
2. Brown's Half Light	14
3. Brown Reconceived: An Alternative Scenario	20
4. The Racial-Sacrifice Covenants	29
5. The Interest-Convergence Covenants	49
6. Brown as an Anticommunist Decision	59
7. The Role of Fortuity in Racial Policy-Making	69
8. Racism's Economic Foundation	77
9. School Litigation in the Nineteenth Century	87
10. The School Desegregation Era	94
11. The End of the Brown Era	114
12. Brown as Landmark: An Assessment	130
13. Affirmative Action and Racial Fortuity in Action	138
14. Searching for Effective Schools in the Post- Brown Era	160
15. Moving Beyond Racial Fortuity	180
Conclusion	194
Notes	203
Index	223