

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xix
Introduction	I
1. Now, Who Are Your People?: Norfolk, Virginia, and Littleton, North Carolina, 1903–1918	13
2. A Reluctant Rebel and an Exceptional Student: Shaw Academy and Shaw University, 1918–1927	46
3. Harlem during the 1930s: The Making of a Black Radical Activist and Intellectual	64
4. Fighting Her Own Wars: The NAACP National Office, 1940–1946	105
5. Cops, Schools, and Communism: Local Politics and Global Ideologies—New York City in the 1950s	148
6. The Preacher and the Organizer: The Politics of Leadership in the Early Civil Rights Movement	170
7. New Battlefields and New Allies: Shreveport, Birmingham, and the Southern Conference Education Fund	209
8. Mentoring a New Generation of Activists: The Birth of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, 1960–1961	239
9. The Empowerment of an Indigenous Southern Black Leadership, 1961–1964	273
10. Mississippi Goddamn: Fighting for Freedom in the Belly of the Beast of Southern Racism	299

11. The Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party and the Radical Campaigns of the 1960s and 1970s	330
12. A Freirian Teacher, a Gramscian Intellectual, and a Radical Humanist: Ella Baker's Legacy	357
Appendix. Ella Baker's Organizational Affiliations, 1927–1986	375
Notes	377
Bibliography	425
Index	451