

---

Contents

Introduction Gavin Kearney	1
Chapter 1 Beyond Brown v. Board of Education : Housing and Education in the Year 2000 Kenneth B. Clark	11
Chapter 2 Living and Learning: Linking Housing and Education John A. Powell	15
Chapter 3 Combating School Resegregation Through Housing: A Need for a Reconceptualization of American Democracy and the Rights It Protects Meredith Lee Bryant	49
Chapter 4 The Persistence of Segregation: Links Between Residential Segregation and School Segregation Nancy A. Denton	89
Chapter 5 Metropolitan School Desegregation: Impacts on Metropolitan Society Gary Orfield	121
Chapter 6 The Current State of School Desegregation Law: Why Isn't Anybody Laughing? Drew S. Days III	159

Chapter 7	Segregation Misunderstood: The Milliken Decision Revisited Charles R. Lawrence III	183
Chapter 8	Discrimination: A Pervasive Concept Michael H. Sussman	209
Chapter 9	The Boundaries of Race: Political Geography in Legal Analysis Richard Thompson Ford	229
Chapter 10	Equality and Educational Excellence: Legal Challenges in the 1990s Theodore M. Shaw	257
Conclusion	Drawing a Blueprint for Linking Housing and Education Vina Kay	269
Contributors		283