

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS .....	ix
FOREWORD .....	xi
INTRODUCTION: Black Women Speak Out .....	1
CHAPTER I: Racism in Today's Societies .....	7
Racism: What Is It, Anyway?
Types of Racism
Changing Terminology
Everyday Racism
Why Only Black Women Speak Out in This Book
CHAPTER II: Surinamese Women Tell of Their Daily Experiences with Whites .....	38
Some Background on Racism in the Netherlands
"Personally, I Don't Have Much Trouble with Discrimination"
Housing and Neighbors
Work Situations I: Patients and Clients
Work Situations II: Supervisors and Coworkers
Education
Public Situations I: Shopping
Public Situations II: Public Transportation
Public Situations III: Aggressive White Men
Conclusion

CHAPTER III: African-American Women's Experiences of Racism .....	144
Handing Down the Knowledge of Racism from Generation to Generation
Lorraine R.
Gloria G.
Bernice L.
Audrey T.
Sojourner U.
Gwendolyn I.
Margaret G.
Eleanor E.
Pamela N.
Similarities in the Experiences of Surinamese and African-American Women
Back in the U.S.A.: The Script Is Constant
Paule P.
Grace E.
CONCLUSION: Everyday Racism—A Global Challenge .....	257
FOOTNOTES .....	261
BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	270