

Contents

---

Prologue	1
Introduction: Studying Prejudices	7
I. A Critique of Pure Overgeneralization
1 Theories of Prejudice: A Preliminary Classification	43
2 What Happened to the “Prejudiced Personality”	57
3 Sociology Surveys the American Dilemma	81
4 The Prejudice That Is Not One	104
5 The Homophobias	137
II. Starting Again: Prejudices—in the Plural
6 “Social Character” in Search of a Theory	163
7 Character Types and Their Ideologies of Desire	200
8 Origins and Developmental Lines: Children and Prejudice	253
9 Adolescence and the Aims of Hatreds	299
10 Shared Prejudices, Societal Styles	340
11 Constructing Ideal Types	386
12 The Body and Soul of Narcissism	412
III. Current Ideologies: The Victims Speak
13 Varieties of Silencing	457
14 On Resistance to Hysterical Repression	486
15 Feeling the Contradictions of Sexism and Being the Targets of Homophobias	517
Epilogue	541
Notes	549
Bibliography	591
Index	619