

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	1
PART ONE 1968
SURVIVING THE SIXTIES
Integration or Black Power? The Great Debate	11
1. The Politics of Manhood and the Southern Black Experience	21
Florence Grier “ My father was from Alabama ”	22
Len Davis “ Promised Land is just like the old plantation ”	30
Howard Spence “ I wouldn’t want to treat anybody like I’ve been treated in Mississippi ”	32
2. Whites on the Front Lines of Racial Conflict	42
Joe Rypins “ Stokely Carmichael ain’t no better than me ”	43
Gladys Hunt “ You break your neck to do something, and they give you a hard time ”	50
Joan Keres “ Sometimes you wish you were black ”	54
Virginia Lawrence “ I was the wrong color in my black man’s eyes ”	57
3. Four Black Women and the Consciousness of the Sixties	64
Florence Grier “ I’m tired of being scared ”	65
Millie Harding “ This is no dream world, baby ”	70
Vera Brooke “ Those that came from a different social experience I feared ”	75
Elena Albert “ Something happened in my childhood I’ve never forgotten ”	82

4. White Backlash: The Fear of a Black Majority and Other Nightmares	89
Maude Wiley “ They’re afraid the colored people are gonna move in and take over ”	90
George Hendrickson “ The Congo nigger ”	94
William Singer “ We didn’t have a great sense of racial awareness ”	98
Bill Harcliff “ It’s just a strong apartheid on the street ”	102
Diane Harcliff “ The whole racial thing makes me burst with sadness ”	102
5. Black Youth and the Ghetto Streets	107
Richard Simmons “ White boys, they’re always innocent ”	108
Larry Dillard “ I would like to kill a white man, just to put it on the books ”	111
Sarah Williams “ The marching and demonstrations is stupid ”	116
Harold Sampson “ Denying you the right to be a man ”	118
6. The Paradox of Working-Class Racism	122
Lawrence Adams “ They’ve got the right to have every human dignity that I have ”	125
Jim Corey “ If I can help a colored man without hurting myself, I haven’t got anything to lose ”	128
Dick Cunningham “ My oldest daughter married a black man ”	133
7. Black Workers: New Options and Old Problems	137
Richard Holmes “ The Negro don’t want to work ”	138
Len Davis “ The postal system has become a Negro-type job ”	139
Mark Anthony Holder “ Being a man is being part of the world ”	141
Jim Pettit “ These people had been treating me bad all my life, and I didn’t know it ”	146
Frank Casey “ They call me an instigator ”	149
Carleta Reeves “ I’d come home bitching and yelling ”	153
Henry Smith “ This was my means of retaliating ”	156

PART TWO 1978–1987

GROWING OLDER IN THE SEVENTIES AND EIGHTIES

The Ambiguities of Racial Change	163
8. “Still in the Struggle”: Black Activists Ten Years Later	172
Howard Spence “ I’m going to protect this land ”	173
Millie Harding “ Dealing with the human issues ”	181
Florence Grier “ I haven’t changed that much ”	186
9. White Lives and the Limits of Integration	197
George Hendrickson “ The man is a damn fool who won’t change his mind ”	198
Maude Wiley “ That was such a strong time of change ”	203
Virginia Lawrence “ The world changed exactly the way I was going ”	205
William Singer “ We’ve turned life itself into a quota business ”	212
Bill Harcliff “ What I really do is live in a white neighborhood ”	214
10. Black Youth: The Worsening Crisis	220
Richard Simmons “ The American black man is a dying species ”	221
Larry Dillard “ Without [the Black Panthers], my generation would be a different generation ”	226
Sarah Williams “ I had him and everything just changed ”	234
Jim Pettit “ Two counts against me: I’m black and I’m gay ”	238
11. Blue-Collar Men in a Tight Economy	245
Jim Corey “ He’s just a boy, Daddy ”	246
Dick Cunningham “ Even Walnut Creek, it’s integrating ”	251
Lawrence Adams “ The federal government and AT&T screwed up ”	255
Joe Rypins “ Smelling like a rose ”	259
Mark Anthony Holder “ Peoples of forty, they’re no longer thinking about a race thing ”	265

12. Men, Women, and Opportunity	271
Harold Sampson “I have not been able to achieve selfhood through the civil rights movement”	272
Frank Casey “If they had gave me the green light”	279
Carleta Reeves “To grow and develop with the times”	283
Henry Smith “If I were a white guy . . .”	286
13. Keeping the Spirit of the Sixties Alive	291
Vera Brooke “The caring factor”	292
Joan Keres “The way that you view humanity and the earth, those are the main things”	299
Len Davis “My whole damn culture’s gone”	304
Elena Albert “I as an individual will continue to resist”	310
Conclusion	315
Appendix: Methodology	327
Notes	331
Bibliographic Essay	337