

Contents

Abbreviations & Acronyms	v
Acknowledgements	vii
Biographical Notes	viii
1 Introduction	1
Caught in the Web? Feminists Doing Development MARILYN PORTER
I • The Structures That Confine Us	15
2 NGOs in a Post-Feminist Era INES SMYTH	17
3 Development and Women in Pakistan TAHERA AFTAB	29
4 Little Progress, Small Niches: the WID Mandate in Japanese Foreign Aid SUE ELLEN CHARLTON	42
5 What I Know about Gender and Development WU QING	57
II • Staying Feminist in Development	71
6 Research and Intervention: Insights from Feminist Health Action in Western India RENU KHANNA	73
7 The Right Connections: Partnering and Expertise in Feminist Work for Change BARBARA COTTRELL	87

iv	CONTENTS
8	Women Organizing for Change: Transformational Organizing as a Strategy for Feminist Development COLLETTE OSEEN	101
9	Taking Development in Our Hands: a Reflection on Indonesian Women's Experience NORI ANDRIYANI	112
	III • Integrating the Local with the Global	127
10	Falling Between the Gaps FENELLA PORTER AND VALSA VERGHESE	129
11	Globalization and Development at the Bottom JOYCE GREEN AND CORA VOYAGEUR	142
12	Labour Rights, Networking, and Empowerment: Mobilizing Garment Workers in Bangladesh HABIBA ZAMAN	158
	IV • Working with Global Structures	173
13	Women Organizing Locally and Globally: Development Strategies, Feminist Perspectives PEGGY ANTROBUS AND LINDA CHRISTIANSEN-RUFFMAN	175
14	Responding to Globalization: Can Feminists Transform Development? JOANNA KERR	190
15	The New Global Architecture: Gender and Development Practices ISABELLA BAKKER	206
16	Afterword: Opening Spaces for Transformative Practice ELLEN JUDD	218
	Bibliography	227
	Index	240