

Contents

| | |
|--|------------|
| Illustrations | vi |
| Introduction: Crossing Boundaries and Acknowledging Support | 1 |
| Part I Understanding Contextual Settings | 9 |
| 1 Beginning Reflections on Language, Power, and Ethics | 11 |
| 2 Postwar Development: International Institutions Marginalize Women | 37 |
| 3 Women Engaging Public Affairs: Institutions Matter | 56 |
| Part II Analyzing Substantive Policies with a Gender Lens | 81 |
| 4 Education for Life and Capacitation | 83 |
| 5 Women's Work: Central to Economies | 100 |
| 6 Population, Overconsumption, and Reproductive Health | 139 |
| 7 Public Safety, Peace, and Violence against Women | 159 |
| Part III Applying Context and Policy Analysis to Action | 175 |
| 8 Bringing Politics Back in: Institutional Contexts for Mainstreaming | 177 |
| 9 Institutional Strategies: Analyzing Political Contexts | 191 |
| 10 Engaging and Changing the Political Mainstream | 212 |
| Appendix: The United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women | 216 |
| Bibliography | 220 |
| Index | 237 |
| About the Author | 243 |