

Contents

Introduction		ix
Part 1:	Eva Feder Kittay “Not My Way, Sesha, Your Way, Slowly”:	3
Prologue	“Maternal Thinking” in the Raising of a Child with Profound Intellectual Disabilities
Part 2:	Dorothy E. Roberts Mothers Who Fail to Protect Their Children:	31
Mothers	Accounting for Private and Public Responsibility
and Harm:	Martha Minow Child Endangerment, Parental Sacrifice:	50
No Easy	A Reading of the Binding of Isaac
Answers	Lynn M. Paltrow Punishment and Prejudice: Judging Drug-Using Pregnant Women	59
	Nina Perales Cultural Stereotype and the Legal Response to Pregnant Teens	81
	Carol Sanger Leaving Children for Work	97
	Hilde Lindemann Nelson Always Connect: Toward a Parental Ethics of Divorce	117
Part 3:	Martha Albertson Fineman Law of the Father	139
Mothers,	Lisa C. Ikemoto Lessons from the Titanic : Start with the	157
Families, and	People in Steerage, Women and Children First the State:	Mary Lyndon Shanley Lesbian Families: Dilemmas in Grounding	178
Reexamining	Legal Recognition of Parenthood
the Old,	Drucilla Cornell Reimagining Adoption and Family Law	208
Reinventing	Paula M. Coeey “Ordinary Mother” as Oxymoron: The Collusion	229
the New	of Theology, Theory, and Politics in the Undermining of Mothers
	Peggy Cooper Davis A Reflection on Three Verbs: To Father, To Mother, To Parent	250

Part 4:	Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore	Ideals and Realities of	281
Beginning		Motherhood: A Theological Perspective
Again—	Jennifer Nedelsky	Dilemmas of Passion, Privilege, and	304
Conversations		Isolation: Reflections on Mothering in a White,
of Mothers		Middle-Class Nuclear Family
Bibliography			335
Contributors			359
Acknowledgments			364