

Contents

Acknowledgments / vii

Introduction: The Intersection of Power and Wound / ix

Part 1: Prelude

- 1 Theoretical Foundations / 3
- 2 Childcare Politics in Canada / 16
- 3 Legal Manoeuvring and the Development of Litigation Strategies / 33

Part 2: “The Play’s the Thing”

- 4 Strategy and Practice: The Play’s the Thing / 57

Part 3: Sorting Out the Aftermath

- 5 The Limits of Judicial Power: The Court as Constrained / 109
- 6 Power, Constraint, and the Rhetoric of Choice / 125
- 7 Multiple Solitudes: Intersectionality in the Nonexpert Public Response / 142
- 8 Class and Gender on the Terrain of Need: Intersectionality in Expert Public Response / 159
- 9 Lessons to Be Learned and a Case to Be Remade / 174

Appendices

- A Selected Statutory Provisions / 197
- B Selections from the Dissent in Symes v. Canada / 201
Notes / 205
Bibliography / 223
Index / 231