

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| 1. Justice, Rationality, and Democracy | 1 |
| I Proceduralism without Metaphysics | |
| 2. What Is Proceduralism? | 17 |
| 3. Proceduralism and the Recovery of Moral Intuitions | 30 |
| 4. Interpretive Deontology | 43 |
| II Contract or Conversation? | |
| 5. John Rawls and the Freedom and Equality of Citizens | 59 |
| 6. Thomas Scanlon and the Desire for Reasonable Agreement | 78 |
| 7. Jürgen Habermas and Practical Discourse | 90 |
| III Discourse and Modernity | |
| 8. Universalism in Reconstructive Science | 109 |
| 9. Defending Modernity | 123 |
| 10. Universalism in Morality | 139 |

IV Discourse and Politics

| | | |
|-----|----------------------------|-----|
| 11. | From the Ideal to the Real | 155 |
| 12. | Justice and the Individual | 173 |
| 13. | Approximating Discourse | 193 |
| 14. | An Illustration | 212 |
| 15. | Culture and Politics | 228 |
| | Index | 247 |