

CONTENTS

Dedication to John Rawls AMY GUTMANN	ix
Preface STEPHEN MACEDO	xi
Contributors	xiii
Introduction STEPHEN MACEDO AND MELISSA S. WILLIAMS	1

PART I: THE INJUSTICE OF DOMINATION

1. Invisible Citizens: Political Exclusion and Domination in Arendt and Ellison DANIELLE ALLEN	29
2. Tragic Visions, Mundane Realities: A Comment on Danielle Allen's "Invisible Citizens" CLIFFORD ORWIN	77
3. The Domination Complaint PHILIP PETTIT	87
4. Pettit and Modern Republican Political Thought MIGUEL VATTER	118
5. Against Monism: Pluralist Critical Comments on Danielle Allen and Philip Pettit VEIT BADER	164
6. A Reply to Bader and Orwin DANIELLE ALLEN	179

7. In Reply to Bader and Vatter PHILIP PETTIT	182
PART II: EXCLUSION, ASSIMILATION, AND THE ROLE OF POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY
8. Exclusion and Assimilation: Two Forms of Domination in Relation to Freedom JAMES TULLY	191
9. Liberal Foundationalism and Agonistic Democracy MICHAEL BLAKE	230
10. Democracy and Legitimacy: A Response to James Tully's "Exclusion and Assimilation" LEIF WENAR	244
11. A Reply to Michael Blake and Leif Wenar JAMES TULLY	250
PART III: BOUNDARIES DRAWN BY SHAME
12. Inscribing the Face: Shame, Stigma, and Punishment MARTHA NUSSBAUM	259
13. The Duration of Shame: "Time Served" or "Lifetime"? SANFORD LEVINSON	303
PART IV: SEXUAL DOMINANCE
14. Genocide's Sexuality CATHARINE A. MACKINNON	313
Index	357