

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	i
I The Contemporary Imagination of Power	11
1. Makings, Trespasses, and Ordinary Evil	15
Securing homes, making worlds	15
The political death of God	19
Ordered evil	22
2. Subject-Citizens and Corporeal Souls	35
Corporeal souls	35
Governing powers	43
Headless bodies	51
3. Recovering Political Enthusiasm for Invisible Powers	61
Reimagining the head of political bodies	62
Alternative political theologies	63
Contemporary spiritual matters	73
	vii

II	A Genealogy of the Modern Subject-Citizen	89
4.	The Politics of Conscience	91
	The mad anarchy of Medea	92
	Knowing together	98
	Entheos confronts monotheos	106
	The scientific basis of individual conscience	109
5.	Hobbes's America	113
	The mythical, mystical people	114
	Social rule and sovereign enthusiasm	126
	Founding and everyday promises	135
III	Living Ethically, Acting Politically	141
6.	Seeking the Limits of Our Selves	143
	Problems of responsibility and freedom	146
	Thinking the invisible, silent, outside	154
7.	A Political Ethos of Conscience	169
	Promising resentments	170
	Forgiving promises	177
	Beginning principles	185
	Notes	199
	Index	219