

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	vii
Preface to the First Edition	ix
Introduction	1
1 Essentially Contested Concepts in Politics	9
Essentially Contested Concepts
An Example: "Politics"
"Descriptive" and "Normative" Concepts
The Role of Ordinary Language
2 Interests in Politics	45
The Import of Contests Over "Interests"
Interests as Policy Preference
Utilitarian Interests
Interests as Need Fulfillment
Real Interests
Appraisals of Real Interests
Interest-Regarding Explanations
3 Power and Responsibility	85
Forms of Power
Power and Responsibility
Toward a Paradigm of 'Having Power Over'

	Authority and Legitimate Power
	The Idea of a Power Structure
	Power Analysis and Ideology
4	The Idea of Freedom	139
	Freedom as a Contested Concept
	Freedom as a Triadic Relationship
	Freedom and Autonomy
	Constraining Conditions
	Assessments of Overall Freedom
5	Conceptual Revision and Political Reform	179
	On Thought and Action (in Games and Politics)
	Politics and Responsibility
6	The Politics of Discourse	211
	Politics and Counter-Examples
	Essentially Contestable Concepts
	Contestability and Deconstruction
	Bibliography	248
	Index	253