

Table of Contents

Preface .....	vii
Acknowledgments .....	xi

PART I LAYING THE GROUNDWORK

1. Egalitarian Justice: Equality as a Goal and Equality as a Right .....	3
2. Methodological Interlude: Egalitarianism and the Appeal to Considered Judgments.....	13

PART II IN DEFENSE OF EGALITARIANISM

Interlude and Proem One .....	45
3. Radical Egalitarian Justice: Justice as Equality.....	46
4. Impediments to Radical Egalitarianism .....	62
5. Class and Justice .....	78

PART III DESERT, MERIT AND MERITOCRACY

Interlude and Proem Two .....	103
6. Justice and Desert .....	104
7. “The Old Egalitarianism” and the Primacy of Equality of Opportunity.....	132
8. On the Logic of Meritocracy .....	148

PART IV LIBERTARIANISM, INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS, AND THE REJECTION OF EGALITARIANISM

Interlude and Proem Three .....	191
--	-----

9. Nozick and Individual Rights . . . . . 192

10. Nozick and Socialism: Some Sociological Critiques . . . . . 218

11. Nozick and Socialism: Some Conceptual Critiques . . . . . 239

12. Nozick and the Critique of Egalitarianism . . . . . 265

PART V ON LIBERTY REQUIRING EQUALITY: A FINAL WORD FOR EGALITARIANISM

Interlude and Proem Four . . . . . 281

13. A Rationale for Radical Egalitarianism . . . . . 283

Index . . . . . 315