

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
PART 1 STUNTED IMAGININGS: THE PROBLEMS OF PATRIARCHAL LIBERALISM AND SOCIALISM	13
1. Eastern European Male Democracies: A Problem of Unequal Equality	15
PART 2 WHO NEEDS GUNS? THE PRIVATIZATION OF THE AMERICAN STATE	37
2. United States Politics and the Myth of Post-Racism: The Supreme Court, Affirmative Action, the Black Middle Class, and the New Black Conservatives	39
3. The “New Racism” and Its Multiple Faces: The Civil Rights Act of 1990–91, the Clarence Thomas Hearings, the Gulf War, and “Political Correctness”	70
	vii

4. Reproductive Rights and the Privatized State: The Webster Decision, Post- Webster Restrictions, and the Bush Administration	100
5. The Contradictory Politics of AIDS: Public Moralism versus the Privatized State	134
PART 3 READ OUR LIPSTICK: FURTHER IMAGININGS	169
6. Revisioning Privacy for Democracy	171
7. Imagining Feminism: Women of Color Specifying Democracy	199
Postscript	223
Notes	225
Index	271