

Contents

FOREWORD
by Warren Shapiro		xi
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS		xv
1
Introduction		1
Feminism and Aggression		3
Aggression Defined		4
Stories of Aggression		6
Ethnography and Ethics		11
The Romance of Fieldwork and Violence
Toward Women		15
Who This Book Is For		19
2
Aggression at Mangrove		21
Aggression and Gender Relations in Aboriginal
Australia		21
Mangrove		23
The Settlement and Aggression		28
Aggression, Authority, and Law		31
Aggression in Daily Life		33

3
The Cultural Construction of Anger and Aggression	44
Anger and Aggression	49
Jealousy and Aggression	57
Intoxication and Anger	60
Why People Are Aggressive	63
What Is Aggression?	68
4
The Control of Aggression	72
Lily's Fight	73
The Aftermath of Aggression	82
Shame	84
Revenge	86
Reunification	91
5
Women and Aggression	97
Competition	100
Anthropological Perspectives on Aggression and Competition	101
Aggression and Competition at Mangrove	103
Competition: Adaptation or Reflex?	107
Aggression and Hierarchy	109
Women, Polygyny, and Competition	111
Food, Children, and Work in Polygynous Households	114
Aggression as Competition at Mangrove	117
Men and Resources	118
Women, Men, and Displaced Aggression	120
Women, Aggression, and Cooperation	125
Fighting through the Life Cycle	130
6
Women, Men, and Interpersonal Aggression	133
Male and Female Aggression	133
Male and Female Aggression at Mangrove	134
Aggression and Gender Relations	138
Aggression and Authority in Aboriginal Australia	141
The Concepts of Status and Gender Relations	142
Domestic Aggression and Women's Autonomy at Mangrove	144
Perceived Sex Differences in Aggressive Behavior	146
The Legitimacy of Male Aggression	149

	The Protection of Women	155
	Wife Beating and Wife Battering	158
	Social Support for Victims of Male Aggression	164
	Men, Women, and Supernatural Aggression	167
	Conclusion	176
	7
Conclusion		179
	The Cultural Construction of Anger and Aggression	179
	Aggressive Women, the Battered Husband
	Controversy, and "the Victim's Viewpoint"	184
	Taking an Aggressive Stance	186
	NOTES	193
	REFERENCES	205
	INDEX	237