

---

CONTENTS

|   |             |     |
|---|-------------|-----|
| Notes on contributors  | page | ix  |
| Preface  |             | xi  |
| 1 Governance, order, and change in world politicsJAMES N. ROSENAU   |             | 1   |
| 2 Governance without government: polyarchy innineteenth-century European international politicsK. J. HOLSTI   |             | 30  |
| 3 The decaying pillars of the Westphalian temple:implications for international order and governanceMARK W. ZACHER  |             | 58  |
| 4 The "triumph" of neoclassical economics in thedeveloping world: policy convergence and bases ofgovernance in the international economic orderTHOMAS J. BIERSTEKER |             | 102 |
| 5 Towards a post-hegemonic conceptualization ofworld order: reflections on the relevancy ofIbn KhaldunROBERT W. COX   |             | 132 |
| 6 The effectiveness of international institutions: hardcases and critical variablesORAN R. YOUNG  |             | 160 |
| 7 Explaining the regulation of transnational practices:a state-building approachJANICE E. THOMSON   |             | 195 |
| 8 "And still it moves!" State interests and social forcesin the European CommunityLINDA CORNETT and JAMES A. CAPORASO   |             | 219 |

CONTENTS

---

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 9  | Governance and democratizationERNST-OTTO CZEMPIEL      | 250 |
| 10 | Citizenship in a changing global orderJAMES N. ROSENAU | 272 |
|    | Index   | 295 |