

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Foreword	ix
Introduction	1

Part One: The Context of Environmental Justice: Perspectives

1. Capitalism and the Crisis of Environmentalism	12
Daniel Faber and James O'Connor
2. Anatomy of Environmental Racism	25
Robert D. Bullard
3. Building a New Vision: Feminist, Green Socialism	36
Mary Mellor
4. The Promise of Environmental Democracy	47
John O'Connor
5. Creating a Culture of Destruction: Gender, Militarism, and the Environment	58
Joni Seager
6. Environmental Consequences of Urban Growth and Blight	67
Cynthia Hamilton
7. Feminism and Ecology	76
Ynestra King
8. Cultural Activism and Environmental Justice	85
Richard Hofrichter

Part Two Practice and Politics: Ecological Inequities and Visions of Possibility

RACE, GENDER, AND THE ENVIRONMENT

9. A Society Based on Conquest Cannot Be Sustained: Native Peoples and the Environmental Crisis 98
Winona LaDuke
10. Blue-Collar Women and Toxic-Waste Protests: The Process of Politicization 107
Celene Krauss
11. Acknowledging the Past, Confronting the Present: Environmental Justice in the 1990s 118
Richard Moore and Louis Head
12. Building on Our Past, Planning for Our Future: Communities of Color and the Quest for Environmental Justice 128
Vernice D. Miller
13. Unequal Protection: The Racial Divide in Environmental Law . . . 136
Marianne Lavelle and Marcia A. Coyle
14. Ecofeminism and Grass-roots Environmentalism in the United States 144
Barbara Epstein

THE HIDDEN ENVIRONMENT: CRISIS AT WORK

15. The Effects of Occupational Injury, Illness, and Disease on the Health Status of Black Americans: A Review 153
Beverly Hendrix Wright and Robert D. Bullard
16. Farm Workers at Risk 163
Cesar Chavez
17. Work: The Most Dangerous Environment 171
Charles Noble
18. Labor's Environmental Agenda in the New Corporate Climate 179
Eric Mann

THE GLOBAL CONNECTION: EXPLOITATION OF DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

19. Corporate Plundering of Third-World Resources 186
Robert Weissman

20. Global Economic Counterrevolution: The Dynamics of Impoverishment and Marginalization 197
Walden Bello

21. Trading Away the Environment: Free-Trade Agreements
and Environmental Degradation 209
Mark Ritchie

22. Economics and Environmental Justice: Rethinking
North–South Relations 219
Martin Khor Kok Peng

23. Solidarity with the Third World: Building an International
Environmental-Justice Movement 226
Chris Kiefer and Medea Benjamin

Appendix: Principles of Environmental Justice 237

Selected Bibliography 240

Contributors 243

Index 247