

CONTENTS

ix	ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
	CHAPTER ONE
3	Meditations on la fête of November 15
	CHAPTER TWO
30	Some Salient Features of Québécois Nationalist Ideology
32	The Individual as a Member of the Nation
39	The Nation as a Collective Individual and a Collection of Individuals
47	The Negative Vision: Pollution and Death
50	Summary: Salient Presuppositions of Nationalist Ideology
	CHAPTER THREE
52	In Search of the Folk Society: Folk Life, Folklore Studies, and the Creation of Tradition
57	Remembered Changes in Folk Dancing and Family Parties
63	Quebec as a Folk Society
67	In Search of the Folk Society
	CHAPTER FOUR
81	The Founding of the Ministère des Affaires culturelles
81	Quebec Cultural Politics before 1960
87	Three Philosophies of National Culture
102	The Founding of the Ministère des Affaires culturelles
107	One Culture, Many Contents
	CHAPTER FIVE
109	Holistic Culture, Bureaucratic Fragmentation
110	Bureaucratic Fragmentation
118	Toward an Anthropological Conception of Québécois Culture

Contents

- 124 Mutually Exclusive Totalities
129 Can Empty Culture Be Filled?

CHAPTER SIX

- 140 "Having a Culture": The Preservation of Quebec's *Patrimoine
142 Cultural Property Legislation
144 Nationalism, Government Regulation, and the Creation of Cultural Property
152 On Having a Culture

CHAPTER SEVEN

- 159 A Normal Society: Majority Language,
Minority Cultures
162 Linguistic Pollution
169 Nationalist Ideology and Language Legislation
175 On Having Minorities

CHAPTER EIGHT

- 183 Meditations on Loose Ends: Lament and Dissent, Totality and Appropriation

199 REFERENCES
215 INDEX