

Contents

Preface

Introduction. The Democratic Wish

Dread and Yearning	2
Dynamics of the Democratic Wish	9
Rival Views of American Political Development	15
Overview	24

I. STATE BUILDING AND THE PEOPLE

1 Representation, Revolution, and Republic	33
Representation	35
Revolution	45
Constitutional Contentions: Reconstructing the Republic	56
Conclusion	72
2 The Resistible Rise of the Common Man: Jacksonian Democracy	74

Contents

The Setting: Social and Economic Tensions	76
The People	80
The People's Bureaucracy	87
Conclusion	94
3 Administrative Science and the People:
The Progressive Movement	97
The Political Setting	100
Progressive Aspirations	107
Progressive Failures	119
Conclusion	125
4 Progressive Administration without the People:
The New Deal	129
Administrative Science Becomes Interest-Group Liberalism	130
Varieties of New Deal Administration	134
The Limits of Legitimacy	137
Conclusion	140
II. THE PEOPLE AND REFORM: THE POLITICAL RECONSTRUCTION OF CLASS, RACE, AND PROFESSION
5 The Reconstruction of Working-Class Politics	145
The Patterns of Working-Class Politics	146
New Deal Labor Policy as Democratic Wish: From NRA to the Wagner Act	153
A Legitimate Workers' Movement	174
Conclusion	179
6 The Reconstruction of Racial Politics	186
Race Politics before Brown	188
The Civil Rights Movement: 1954-63	199
The War on Poverty as Democratic Wish	218
Conclusion	249

Contents

7	The Reconstruction of Medical Politics	253
	The Autonomy of the Medical Profession	254
	Public Power and the Doctors: 1933–66	257
	Health Policy as Democratic Wish: Costs, Crisis, and Consumers	265
	Decline of Doctors' Power	284
	Snapshots of Five Communities	286
	Conclusion	314
8	Elusive Community: Democratic Wishes for the 21st Century	322
	Notes	339
	Index	391