

contents

Introduction	7
1 Fatima Meer Comes to Chatsworth	15
2 Harinarian “Moses” Judhoo in the Promised Land	20
3 How Are These People Even Able to Exist?	24
4 A Social Time Bomb Starts Ticking	30
5 The Struggle and Its Fruits: From the Militant Eighties to the End of Apartheid	35
6 “We Are the Poors”	41
7 Upgrading the Houses and the Return of Relocation	46
8 Is It Legal to Be Poor?: Evictions and Resistance	50
9 Faces in the Crowd	56
10 Working Life: From Rags to Tatters	64
11 Thulisile Manqele’s Water	67
12 A Revolt Grows in Isipingo	77
13 Mpumalanga’s New War (co-authored with Heinrich Bohmke)	82
14 Fighting Neoliberalism in Soweto and Tafelsig (co-authored with Peter van Heusden)	91
15 Labor and Community: The Volkswagen and Engen Strikes	100
16 Chatsworth Reignites	116
17 Global and Local: The World Conference Against Racism and the Durban Social Forum	120
18 Building a New Movement?	140
Appendix: Durban Social Forum Declaration	150