

Contents

Introduction	1
1 Time and Class	6
Absentee landlords, mark II
Freedom of movement and the self-constitution of societies
New speed, new polarization
2 Space Wars: a Career Report	27
The battle of the maps
From mapping space to the spatialization of maps
Agoraphobia and the renaissance of locality
Is there life after Panopticon?
3 After the Nation-state – What?	55
Universalizing – or being globalized?
The new expropriation: this time, of the state
The global hierarchy of mobility
4 Tourists and Vagabonds	77
Being a consumer in a consumer society
Divided we move
Moving through the world vs. the world moving by
For better or worse – united

5	Global Law, Local Orders	103
	Factories of immobility
	Prisons in the post-correction age
	Safety: a tangible means to an elusive end
	The out of order
	Notes	128
	Index	134