

Contents

Preface	ix
THE PHENOMENOLOGICAL METHOD	1
Clarifying Questions	9
Meaning as Mediation	15
Phenomenological Possibilities for Media Research	22
A Problematic	26
Notes to Chapter 1	30
A HEIGHT OF AUDACITY, RAMPARTS	33
Editorial Issues	35
Finance and Marketing Practices	39
The Critics	44
Notes to Chapter 2	47
THE PROBLEM OF LANGUAGE	49
Transcendental Phenomenology	52
Deconstructing Presence	55
Reconstructing the Subject	60
Freedom of Constraint	65
Epistemology of Objectivity	71
Notes to Chapter 3	76
ETHICS OF DIFFERENCE	79
Scheler's Ethics of Value	80
Foucault's Aesthetics of Existence	85
Levinas' Metaphysics of Desire	89
Proximity and Responsibility	95
Radical Anarchy	99
Notes to Chapter 4	107
PROCESS AND PRACTICE	111
Ontology of the Flesh	112

viii Contents

Philosophy as Hyperbole	118
Expressive Fields	124
Cultural Journalism	131
Notes to Chapter 5	139
THE POLITICAL DIMENSION	141
Hegemony, Power and the Media	141
Hegemony	143
Power	146
Repressive Hypothesis	148
Normalization	151
Discipline	153
Mass Media	155
Cultivation Analysis	157
Surveillance, Privacy and Information	160
Information Invades Privacy	162
Public Versus Private	166
Power Invests Discourse	168
Information Trumps Knowledge	171
Notes to Chapter 6	177
ALL THE NEWS...	183
Behind the Front Page	184
Management of the Kingdom and the Power	202
Framing El Salvador	208
Reporting on Human Rights Violations	216
Conclusion	223
Notes to Chapter 7	226
JURISPRUDENCE AND ACCESS TO THE MEDIA	233
Jurisprudence	234
Pure Theory of Law	234
Impure Theory of Law	240
Access as a Matter of Interpretation	246
Revoking Fairness: The Year of the Contra	251
Conflicting Arguments and Indeterminate Justifications:
The Fairness Doctrine, 1949-1987	253
The Doctrine	253
The Revocation	256
The Logic of Exclusion	258
The Discourse of Deregulation	260
Notes to Chapter 8	265
Author Index	271
Subject Index	273