

Contents

1

The Study of Politics	1
Up from Innocence	2
The Inescapability of Politics	3

2

Wealth and Want in the United States	9
The Distribution of Want	9
Who Owns America?	14
The Pursuit of Corporate Profit	17

3

The American Way	25
Who's on Top?	25
Getting More and Getting Ahead	29
The Fear of Equality	32
Conservatives, Liberals and Radicals	36

4

What the Founding Fathers Did	41
“The Public Good and Private Rights”	42
Containing the Spread of Democracy	47
Plotters or Patriots?	49
An Elitist Document	53

5

The Growth of Government	57
The Class Function of Government	58
The “Progressive” Era	60
The New Deal: Reform for Whom?	63

6

Politics: Who Gets What?	69
Welfare for the Rich	69
The Pentagon: Billions for Big Brother	76
The Sword and the Dollar: Travels Abroad	80
Taxes: The Unequal Burden	86

7

Health, Education and Welfare: The Leaky Pump	91
The Poor Get Less	91
“Urban Removal” and Transportation	98
Health and Safety for Nobody	101
On Behalf of Pollution	105
The Nixon Approach	107

8

Whose Law? Whose Order?	109
The Protection of Property	109
Criminal Enforcement: Unequal Before the Law	113
The Repression of Dissenters	122
Psycho-controls for Law and Order	134

9

The Sound and the Fury: Elections and Parties	141
The Harvesting of Votes	141
Democrats and Republicans: Fraternal Twins	143
The Two-Party Monopoly	147
Democratic Competition: Does It Exist?	152

10

The Politics of Discouragement: Nonvoters and Voters	157
Nonvoting as a Rational Response	158
Voting as an Irrational Response	162

11

The Mass Media: By the Few, For the Many	167
He Who Pays the Piper	168
The Politics of Entertainment	171
Repressing the Press	173

12

Who Governs? Leaders and Lobbyists	179
“Those Who Own the Land Shall Govern It”	180
Campaign Contributions: What Money Can Buy	183
Lobbyists and Their Ways	186
Corruption as an American Way of Life	190

13

Congress: The Pocketing of Power	193
Rule by Special Interest	194
The Legislative Labyrinth	200
Congress: A Product of Its Environment	203

14

The Special-Interest President	209
Guardian of Capitalism	209
The Pressure Politician	214
The President versus Congress: Who Has the Power?	220
Change from the Top?	224

15

The Politics of Bureaucracy	227
Government by Secrecy and Deception	227
Bureaucratic Action and Inaction	231
Little Administrators and Big Businessmen	235
Public Authority in Private Hands	241
Government “Meddling”	246

16

Nine Men and the Constitution 249

Who Judges? 249

The Supremely Political Court 251

Nibbling Away at the First Amendment 256

The Court Today 263

Influence of the Court 267

17

Democracy for the Few 271

Pluralism for the Few 272

The Myth of the Mixed Economy 277

Why Things Do Not Change Much 281

What the People Want 285

Upward from Capitalism 295

Index 299