

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
Part 1 Globalization and Democracy
1 Globalization: Curse or Promise?	17
2 Global Governance and Cultural Diversity: Toward a Cosmopolitan Democracy	35
3 “Asian Values” and Global Human Rights: Tensions and Convergences	51
4 Beyond Fugitive Democracy: Some Modern and Postmodern Reflections	71
5 Achieving Our World Democratically: A Response to Richard Rorty	91
Part 2 Pluralism: Variations on Self–Other Relations
6 Transversal Encounters: Calvin Schrag and Postmodernity	111
7 Border Crossings: Bernhard Waldenfels on Dialogue	129
8 Distancing the Other: Jacques Derrida on Friendship	147

9	Oneself as Another: Paul Ricoeur's "Little Ethics"	171
10	Resisting Totalizing Uniformity: Martin Heidegger on Macht and Machenschaft	189
	Conclusion	211
	Index	215
	About the Author	223