

CONTENTS

List of Figures
Preface

xi
xiii

Part One: Conceptual Analysis and Political Theories

- | | | |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 1 | What Are Political Concepts? | 3 |
| | 1.1 Socrates's Question, 3 | |
| | 1.2 Words, Definitions, and Things, 7 | |
| | 1.3 Wittgenstein's Later Analysis, 12 | |
| | 1.4 Wittgenstein and Conceptual Investigations, 16 | |
| | 1.5 Summary, 22 | |
| | Notes, 23 | |
| 2 | Conceptual Disputes | 26 |
| | 2.1 Essentially Contested Concepts, 26 | |
| | 2.2 Political Ideologies, 33 | |
| | 2.3 Political Philosophy and Political Theories, 36 | |
| | 2.4 Summary, 43 | |
| | Notes, 44 | |
| 3 | Political Theories: Conceptual Structures and Enduring Types | 46 |
| | 3.1 Liberalism, Socialism, and Conservatism, 46 | |
| | 3.2 Rationalism/Antirationalism, 52 | |
| | 3.3 Theories of Human Nature, 60 | |
| | 3.4 Individualism/Collectivism, 66 | |
| | 3.5 Summary, 70 | |
| | Notes, 71 | |

Part Two

Political Concepts

- 4 Negative and Positive Liberty 77
- 4.1 Negative Liberty: Some Ordinary Language Considerations, 77
- 4.2 Positive Freedom, 82
- 4.3 Two Concepts of Liberty, 86
- 4.4 Questioning the Positive/Negative Distinction, 94
- 4.5 Summary, 97
- Notes, 98
-
- 5 Liberty and Power 101
- 5.1 Positive Freedom as Power to Act, 101
- 5.2 Power and Freedom, 105
- 5.3 Freedom, Power, and Property, 110
- 5.4 Freedom, Power, and the Law, 116
- 5.5 Summary, 123
- Notes, 124
-
- 6 Equality 127
- 6.1 Equality and the Grounds for Equal Treatment, 127
- 6.2 Why Equality? External Arguments for the Importance of Equality, 129
- 6.3 Why Equality? Arguments from Fundamental Human Equality, 136
- 6.4 Equality of What? 145
- 6.5 Summary, 154
- Notes, 155
-
- 7 Equality and Liberty in Political Theories 158
- 7.1 Do Liberty and Equality Conflict? 158
- 7.2 Classical Liberalism: Liberty and Basic Equality, 159
- 7.3 Revisionist Liberalisms, 166
- 7.4 A Socialist Reconciliation Proposal, 170
- 7.5 The Conservative Critique of Equality, 174
- 7.6 Summary, 178
- Notes, 179

8	Justice and Liberalism	182
8.1	The Elements of Justice, 182
8.2	Classical Liberalism: Rules for Equally Free People, 188
8.3	Monistic Revisionist Liberalism: Social Justice and Contributions to the Common Good, 194
8.4	Pluralistic Revisionist Liberalism: A Revised Social Contract Among Free and Equal People, 199
8.5	Summary, 206
	Notes, 207
9	Justice, Society, and Community	210
9.1	Marx on Societies and Their Justice, 210
9.2	Socialism and the Democratic Community, 218
9.3	Three Conservative Approaches to Justice, 223
9.4	Summary, 233
	Notes, 234
10	Political Authority	237
10.1	Conservatism and Political Authority, 237
10.2	On Being "In Authority," 241
10.3	Liberal Political Authority, 246
10.4	Democratic Authority and the Management of Collective Affairs, 251
10.5	Summary, 257
	Notes, 258
	Concluding Remarks:
	From Political Concepts to Political Theories	261
	Index	263