

Beyond Oppression

Feminist Theory and Political Strategy

M. E. Hawkesworth

CONTINUUM • NEW YORK

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Introduction	11
I Provocations of Feminist Theory
1 The Reification of Difference	17
Gender in the Classic Canon	18
Feminism and the Classic Canon	38
Problematizing Gender	44
2 Social Consequences of Gender Misconceptions	47
Undervaluing Women	48
Illusory Equality	52
Persistent Harms	56
Explanation or Legitimation?	65
II Feminist Problematics
3 Explaining Oppression: Matriarchy, Patriarchy, and the Defeat of the Female Sex	73
The Tyranny of Biology	76
Force	83
The Sexual Division of Labor	89

Psychological Explanations	98
Past as Prologue	105
4 Feminist Rhetoric: Models of Politicization	110
The Rhetoric of Oppression	111
The Rhetoric of Difference	114
The Rhetoric of Reason	118
The Rhetoric of Vision	122
Rhetorical Constructions and Systems of Signification	125
5 Feminist Theory and Claims of Truth	130
Knowers	133
Knowing	139
Known	145
6 Re/Vision: Feminist Theory Confronts the Polis	149
Omissions and Explanations	150
An Alternative Account: The Politics of Virtue	153
Liberal Feminism and the Political Construction of Commonality	157
Equal Participation in a Nonsexist Polity	160
Consciousness Raising and the Politics of Conversion	164
Transcending the Legacy of the Classics	166
III Toward A World Worthy of Feminist Allegiance
7 A Constitutional Proposal	171
Gender: Analogies and Dysanalogies	173
Reconstituting Political Life:
Tinkering with the Institutions	180
Sex Parity and Distributive Justice	181
Tactics for Mobilizing a Majority	186
Sex Parity and the Constitutive Role of the Political	189
Descriptive Representation, Oppression, and Pluralism	192
A Flexible, Morally Acceptable First Step	195
Notes	199
Bibliography	255
Index	275