

Talking about welfare

readings in philosophy
and social policy

Edited by

Noel Timms

*Professor of Social Work
University of Newcastle upon Tyne*

and

David Watson

*Department of Moral Philosophy
University of Glasgow*

Routledge & Kegan Paul
London, Henley and Boston

Contents

Notes on the contributors	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction Noel Timms and David Watson	1
1 The right to welfare T. H. Marshall	51
2 The concept of welfare Richard B. Brandt	64
3 The good of man G. H. Von Wright	88
4 Alienation and self-realization Kai Nielsen	117
5 Human rights, real and supposed Maurice Cranston	133
6 Welfare state and welfare society R. M. Titmuss	145
7 Respect for persons and public morality R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer	161
8 Liberty, equality and fraternity David Donnison	189
9 Who is my stranger? R. M. Titmuss	207
10 The concept of community John Benson	237

11	The function of social work in society Peter Leonard	252
12	The art and science of helping Alan Keith-Lucas	267
13	Knowing by living through Dorothy Walsh	281
14	On not being judgmental Ian T. Ramsey	290
	Bibliography	304